Museums:

Casey Tibbs Rodeo Foundation and Rodeo Center:

The Casey Tibbs South Dakota Rodeo Center located in Fort Pierre, South Dakota is a historical museum devoted to the legendary sport of South Dakota rodeo; the history and its stars. With an extensive collection of the memorabilia and collections of icons Casey Tibbs, 9-time World Champion Saddle Bronc Rider and Mattie Goff Newcombe, the spectacular trick rider of the 1920s, this museum provides a historical view into the rich culture which has made rodeo such an important part of South Dakota history. Their conference center offers a spectacular view on a hill overlooking the Missouri River. It's the perfect place for conferences, meetings, banquets, and receptions. Amenities: full catering kitchen, seating for 250 guests, dance floor and ample parking.
